

John Quincy Adams: Boy Patriot. By Ann Weil. Illustrated by Paul Laune. Bobbs-Merrill, $1.50.

The 21st book in the Bobbs-Merrill "Childhood of Famous Americans" series. Attractive, simply written account of the life of John Quincy Adams. Suitable for 3rd and 4th grades. C. R.

Robert Fulton: Boy Craftsman. By Marguerite Henry. Illustrated by Lawrence Dresser. Bobbs-Merrill, $1.50.

Fictionized biography of Robert Fulton which combines the everyday happenings of his childhood: marbles, fireworks, fishing, drawing, etc., with the actual incidents which led to the building of the Clermont. Suitable for grades 3 and 4. C. R.

The Year without a Summer; a Story of 1816. By Ethel Parton. With illustrations by Margaret Platt. Viking, $2.00.

Although 1816 brought trouble to the New England village—floods, snow in summer, and a threat to their security when an English girl claimed the land, it also brought to Parnella the beginning of a new happiness. Her family realized that she was well enough to go skating and sliding. Jerry the Rhymer was a jolly person to know, and the English girl became a very dear friend. It took a giant turtle to solve the mystery of the title to the land. Grades 5-7. J. G. S.

The Forgetful Elephant. By Jean Greene. Pictures by Tibor Gergely. David McKay, $1.00.

Little Max the elephant belongs to a family of circus elephants. A circus elephant must remember what he is taught. Little Max never could. One day something happened to make him remember. A pleasant looking book, nice type, pictures good. Doesn't seem unusual or especially interesting. Yet, seven year old children like it.

P. F.

Eeny Meeny Miney Mo and Still Mo. By Sam Campbell. Bobbs-Merrill, $2.00.

Captain Duke was a guest of the Campbells when five baby red squirrels were brought to their camp in the North Woods. The Captain named them and helped care for them. Later when on active duty he begged for news of the "squints." Captain Duke, wounded, and returned to the States, again visited the Campbells. The "squints" and other animals helped to restore his former exuberance and peace of mind. Good story of animals and humans, which children will like. Grades five to seven. K. E. H.

Index

Volume XXII

A

- Agnes, Sister Mary—Social Values in Children's Poetry, 133
Assisi, Sister M. Francis—From Print to Books, 147

B

- Bailey, Grace D.—Getting Acquainted with Christmas Books, 301
Betts, Emmett A.—Experiences in "Our Library" (Review of Our Library), 197
Betts, Emmett A.—Inter-relationship of Reading and Spelling, 13
Betts, Emmett A.—Levels of Professional Competency in Differentiated Reading Instruction, 261
Bowers, Mary E.—Guiding Experiences in Free Writing, 177

- Brady, Florence A.—The Use of Marionettes in Literature, 182
Brumbaugh, Florence—A Library Grows, 214
Burch, Ruth—The Perfect Specimen, 46

C

- Children's Books for Democratic Survival—Helen Sattley, 77
Cole, Natalie—Creative Writing for Therapy, 124
Columbus Meeting, The—W. Wilbur Hatfield and La Tourette Stockwell, 66
Controlled Composition in the 5.xth Grade—Helen H. Young, 321
Controlling Concepts in Reading Instruction—John J. DeBoer, 61

John Quincy Adams: Boy Patriot. By Ann Weil. Illustrated by Paul Laune. Bobbs-Merrill, $1.50.

The 21st book in the Bobbs-Merrill "Childhood of Famous Americans" series. Attractive, simply written account of the life of John Quincy Adams. Suitable for 3rd and 4th grades. C. R.

Robert Fulton: Boy Craftsman. By Marguerite Henry. Illustrated by Lawrence Dresser. Bobbs-Merrill, $1.50.

Fictionized biography of Robert Fulton which combines the everyday happenings of his childhood: marbles, fireworks, fishing, drawing, etc., with the actual incidents which led to the building of the Clermont. Suitable for grades 3 and 4. C. R.

The Year without a Summer; a Story of 1816. By Ethel Parton. With illustrations by Margaret Platt. Viking, $2.00.

Although 1816 brought trouble to the New England village—floods, snow in summer, and a threat to their security when an English girl claimed the land, it also brought to Parnella the beginning of a new happiness. Her family realized that she was well enough to go skating and sliding. Jerry the Rhymer was a jolly person to know, and the English girl became a very dear friend. It took a giant turtle to solve the mystery of the title to the land. Grades 5-7. J. G. S.

The Forgetful Elephant. By Jean Greene. Pictures by Tibor Gergely. David McKay, $1.00.

Little Max the elephant belongs to a family of circus elephants. A circus elephant must remember what he is taught. Little Max never could. One day something happened to make him remember. A pleasant looking book, nice type, pictures good. Doesn't seem unusual or especially interesting. Yet, seven year old children like it.

P. F.

Eeny Meeny Miney Mo and Still Mo. By Sam Campbell. Bobbs-Merrill, $2.00.

Captain Duke was a guest of the Campbells when five baby red squirrels were brought to their camp in the North Woods. The Captain named them and helped care for them. Later when on active duty he begged for news of the "squints." Captain Duke, wounded, and returned to the States, again visited the Campbells. The "squints" and other animals helped to restore his former exuberance and peace of mind. Good story of animals and humans, which children will like. Grades five to seven. K. E. H.

Index

Volume XXII

A

- Agnes, Sister Mary—Social Values in Children's Poetry, 133
Assisi, Sister M. Francis—From Print to Books, 147

B

- Bailey, Grace D.—Getting Acquainted with Christmas Books, 301
Betts, Emmett A.—Experiences in "Our Library" (Review of Our Library), 197
Betts, Emmett A.—Inter-relationship of Reading and Spelling, 13
Betts, Emmett A.—Levels of Professional Competency in Differentiated Reading Instruction, 261
Bowers, Mary E.—Guiding Experiences in Free Writing, 177

- Brady, Florence A.—The Use of Marionettes in Literature, 182
Brumbaugh, Florence—A Library Grows, 214
Burch, Ruth—The Perfect Specimen, 46

C

- Children's Books for Democratic Survival—Helen Sattley, 77
Cole, Natalie—Creative Writing for Therapy, 124
Columbus Meeting, The—W. Wilbur Hatfield and La Tourette Stockwell, 66
Controlled Composition in the 5.xth Grade—Helen H. Young, 321
Controlling Concepts in Reading Instruction—John J. DeBoer, 61

- Convention, Heard at the—Quotation from addresses by Paul A. Witty, Paul Farmer, Rev. Thomas Verner Moore, Harold E. Davis, Nathan A. Miller, George Salt, Horst Frenz, and Gordon Keith, 29
- Creative Writing for Therapy—Natalie Cole, 124
- Cuddington, Ruth Abce—Thanksgiving Day, 1945, 273

D

- Davis, Harold E.—Heard at the Convention, 29
- Dawson, Mildred A.—Studies in Elementary School English for 1944, 169
- Dealing with Visual Problems in the Classroom—Lester R. Wheeler, 226
- DeBoer, John J.—Controlling Concepts in Reading Instruction, 61
- DeBoer, John J.—Textbooks and the Educative Process: A Discussion, 333
- DeBoer, John J.—What New Directions for Elementary Education? (An Editorial) 233
- Denecke, Lena S.—Fifth Graders Study the Comic Books, 6
- Development of Vocabulary, The—Ruth G. Strickland, 9
- Dolch, E. W.—How A Child Sounds Out A Word, 275
- Dolch, E. W.—Spelling to Write (Review of Spelling to Write) 196
- Douglas, Mary Peacock—The State School Library Supervisor Aids the Literature Program, 24

E

- Early Adventuring with Books—Lyla Greathouse Gillis, 201
- Early Spring Books—Irene B. Meloy and Irene Geltch, 165
- Eckelmann, Dorathy—If Johnny Stutters, 207
- Eckelmann, Dorathy—Speech Correctionist Talks with the Classroom Teacher, The, 157
- Evans, Clara—Reading Readiness for the Kindergarten, 143
- Experiences in "Our Library" (Review of Our Library)—Emmett A. Betts, 197

F

- Farmer, Paul—Heard at the Convention, 29
- Fifth Graders Study the Comic Books—Lena S. Denecke, 6
- Fleisch, Marian—Pictures Help Vocabulary Growth, 317
- Frenz, Horst—Heard at the Convention, 29
- Friday Afternoon Reading Fun—Mary Tuohy Ryan, 27
- From Print to Books—Sister M. Francis Assisi, C.S.A., 147
- Function of Literature in the Elementary School, The—Blanche Trezevant, 100

G

- Geltch, Irene and Meloy, Irene B.—Early Spring Books, 165
- Geltch, Irene and Meloy, Irene B.—Some Outstanding Children's Books of the Year, 312
- Getting Acquainted with Christmas Books—Grace D. Bailey, 301
- Gillis, Lyla Greathouse—Early Adventuring with Books, 201
- Give Them Time!—Ethel J. Graff, 217
- Graff, Ethel J.—Give Them Time!, 217
- Green, Ivah—Motivation for Correct English, 50
- Group Instruction in Remedial Reading: A Suggested Program—R. A. Pulliam, 186
- Guiding Experiences in Free Writing—Mary E. Bowers, 177

H

- Hatfield, W. Wilbur and Stockwell, La Tourette—The Columbus Meeting, 66
- Hobbies in the Auditorium: A Sixth Grade Project—Tillie Horowitz, 284
- Horowitz, Tillie—Hobbies in the Auditorium: A Sixth Grade Project, 284
- How A Child Sounds Out a Word—E. W. Dolch, 275

I

- If Johnnie Stutters—Dorathy Eckelmann, 207
- Implications of Army Education Programs—Paul Witty, 281
- Indirect Methods of Teaching Reading—Lester R. Wheeler, 106
- Inter-relationship of Reading and Spelling—Emmett A. Betts, 13
- Invitation to Read, An—Laura May Twohig, 310

K

- Keith, Gordon—Heard at the Convention, 29

L

- Language Arts in the Elementary School, The—Walter I. Murray, 52
- Language Growth and Child Development—Dora V. Smith, 81
- Let's Get Acquainted—Adele K. Solheim, 163
- Levels of Professional Competency in Differentiated Reading Instruction—Emmett A. Betts, 261
- Library and Reading Study, A—Nathan A. Miller, 127
- Library Growth, A—Florence Brumbaugh, 214

Mc

- McCullough, Constance—The Recognition of Context Clues in Reading, 1
- McIntire, Alta—Spelling Can Be Fun, 271

M

- Marshall, Elizabeth—When I Grow Up (Poem), 181
 Meloy, Irene B. and Geltch, Irene—Early Spring Books, 165
 Meloy, Irene B. and Geltch, Irene—Some Outstanding Children's Books of the Year, 312
 Miller, Nathan A.—A Library and Reading Study, 127
 Miller, Nathan A.—Heard at the Convention, 29
 Moore, Rev. Thomas Verner—Heard at the Convention, 29
 Motivation for Correct English—Ivah Green, 50
 Murray, Walter I.—The Language Arts in the Elementary School, 52

N

- National Council of Teachers of English—Annual Council Convention at Minneapolis, 239; Election Notice, 189; Heard at the Convention, 29; Program: Thirty-fifth Annual Meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English, Radisson Hotel, Minneapolis, Minn., 286; Revised Constitution, 189; The Columbus Meeting, 66
 Newspapers in the Classroom, Lester R. and Viola D. Wheeler, 324

P

- Perfect Specimen—Ruth Burch, 46
 Perrin, Porter G.—Teaching 'Realistic Grammar', 41
 Pictures Help Vocabulary Growth—Marian Fleisch, 317
 Pulliam, R. A.—Group Instruction in Remedial Reading: A Suggestive Program, 186

R

- Reading Difficulty of School Textbooks, The—Gerald A. Yoakam, 304
 Reading Readiness for the Kindergarten—Clara Evans, 143
 Reading Road to Punctuation Skill, The—Rachel Salisbury, 117
 Realms of Gold in Children's Writing—Paul A. Witty, 88
 Recognition of Context Clues in Reading, The—Constance McCullough, 1
 Ryan, Mary Tuohy—Friday Afternoon Reading Fun, 27

S

- Salisbury, Rachel—The Reading Road to Punctuation Skill, 117
 Salt, George—Heard at the Convention, 29
 Sattley, Helen—Children's Books for Democratic Survival, 77
 School Assembly Program, The—Evelyn Simonson, 257
 Simon, Clarence T.—Speech Correction, 94
 Simonson, Evelyn—The School Assembly Program, 257
 Smith, Dora V.—Language Growth and Child Development, 81
 Snook, Mary Jane—Speech and the Language Arts Program, 139
 Social Values in Children's Poetry—Sister Mary Agnes, 133

- Solheim, Adele K.—Let's Get Acquainted, 163
 Some Outstanding Children's Books of the Year—Irene Geltch and Irene B. Meloy, 312
 Speech and the Language Arts Program—Mary Jane Snook, 139
 Speech Correction—Clarence T. Simon, 94
 Speech Correctionist Talks with the Classroom Teacher, The—Dorothy Eckelmann, 157
 Spelling Can Be Fun—Alta McIntire, 271
 Spelling to Write (Review of Spelling to Write), E. W. Dolch, 196
 State School Library Supervisor Aids the Literature Program, The—Mary Peacock Douglas, 24
 Stockwell, La Tourette, and Hatfield, W. Wilbur—The Columbus Meeting, 66
 Strickland, Ruth G.—The Development of Vocabulary, 9
 Studies in Elementary School English for 1944—Mildred A. Dawson, 169

T

- Teaching 'Realistic Grammar'—Porter G. Perrin, 41
 Textbooks and the Educative Process: A Discussion—John J. DeBoer and Gerald Yoakam, 333
 Thanksgiving Day, 1945—Ruth Abec Cuddington, 273
 Trabue, Marion R.—Vital Studies Needed in Elementary School English, 56
 Trezevant, Blanche—The Function of Literature in the Elementary School, 100
 Twohig, Laura May—Invitation to Read, 310

U

- Use of Marionettes in Literature, The—Florence A. Brady, 182

V

- Vital Studies Needed in Elementary School English—Marion R. Trabue, 56

W

- What New Directions for Elementary Education? An Editorial—John J. DeBoer, 233
 Wheeler, Lester R.—Dealing with Visual Problems in the Classroom, 226
 Wheeler, Lester R.—Indirect Methods of Teaching Reading, 106
 Wheeler, Lester R. and Viola D., Newspapers in the Classroom, 324
 When I Grow Up (Poem)—Elizabeth Marshall, 181
 Witty, Paul A.—Heard at the Convention, 29
 Witty, Paul A.—Implications of Army Education Programs, 281
 Witty, Paul A.—Realms of Gold in Children's Writing, 88

Y

- Yoakam, Gerald A.—The Reading Difficulty of School Textbooks, 304
 Young, Helen H.—Controlled Composition in the Sixth Grade, 321

